NSG 510 - Professional Role Transition

In this course, the student will reflect on the history of nursing to understand and advance the influence of the MSN professional nurse. Professional and national certifications will be explored to develop a plan for career-long learning and advocacy for professional nurses to lead interprofessional healthcare teams to address laws, policies, and the regulation of the nursing practice. The student will develop a current personal philosophy of nursing, focusing on building their professional nurse identity.

Upon completion, students will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of nursing history in advancing nursing's influence in health care (AACN 1.1g).
- Integrate an evolving personal philosophy of nursing and healthcare into one's professional nursing identity (AACN 9.6).
- Design strategies that promote lifelong learning of self which incorporates professional practices in the context of nursing's core value of professional nursing standards and accountability for practice by exploring AONE, CNE, and AACN educational competencies (AACN 9.6e).
- Advocate for the value and role of the professional nurse as a member and leader of interprofessional healthcare teams to advocate for laws, policies, and the regulation of nursing practice (AACN 9.5f, 9.5h, 10.3).
