Course

NSG 255 - Principles of Teaching and Learning

This course focuses on teaching/learning theories and strategies used by professional nurses to meet individual, family and community education needs. The nursing process provides a basis for planning, implementing, and evaluating teaching. The effectiveness of the baccalaureate nurse's teaching on client readmissions, and quality client outcomes is emphasized. Students analyze content, reading levels, and quality of print, web and other materials and redesign resources as appropriate. In addition, students will examine the impact of aging and co-morbid conditions on learning ability as well as age appropriate teaching strategies. Prerequisite: NSG 101 and admission to the BSN Program or permission of the Dean, School of Health Sciences.
